my god it took awhile to complete but i got there still it was too cheasy and barely tolerble in small doses only the most paitiant can win this game still i finally got all five ending hazar anyway its way too cheasy for my likeing and i dont think ill play it again anytime soon 3V10. Pros:

- ++ It's a dating sim.
- ++ That "Sinful Eden Girl" is a massage lady, and gives you a boner.
- ++ Priestess Aurore's "scary" form on the game over screen is pretty sexy.

Cons:

- You have to remember phone numbers
- Game asks you trivia questions to make most of your money. (IE: Math problems, what is an echidna, etc.)
- The "eye of ra" states it says there's hidden items. But doesn't say HOW TO FIND THEM IF IT IS BLINKING\GLOWING.
- Game has no "Exit to Title" option on the diary so that you can re-read the instructions.
- Game has no real instructions for anything. Just how to do things in the game like accrue Reputation and money, but that's it, no advanced insructions like HOW TO USE THE EYE OF RA.
- Repetitive Music
- The character is always toting his "Shocked" Expression. The game even makes fun of it.
- Only 5 girls. (1 Hidden)
- The Goddess Board Mini game can \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 off.
- You have to max out relationships with all the non-hidden girls before you can actually progress.
- You can't romance the Massage Lady (the Sinful Eden Girl at the title.)

Do not recommend.. I was hoping for a decently fun game that rewarded you in the same sense as HuniePop. It just feels incomplete and like one of those crap games you bought on the Xbox Live Indie section for $1. Stay away from this unless there is a 90%+ mark off

The main cons of this game:

1. "Reputation" is mainly earned through a single minigame (a 4x4 block puzzle, where you get a different picture every 5 stages). These pictures are usually just pictures of women in underwear\lingerie. This game gets old VERY quickly and the only other method is by working (which is only allowed on Tuesday) that consists of taking random guesses at the answers to questions that you recieve. You also earn rep by gifting items to girls (but this is difficult, which is explained in point 3) Every time you sleep to advance time, it eats away at the reputation you have gained. So you end up sitting there doing nothing for quite a long period of time since you don't want to lose your "rep"
2. There is straight up nothing to do in this game besides go to every area that is currently unlocked and click on "sparkles" that give you $5 at a time.
3. There is no sensible way to make money. You start the game with a whopping $20 from your mom. Like in every dating sim, you need money to buy gifts. The only way to get that money is by going to the casino (which has TERRIBLE luck). Or working your 1 day a week job. Or by going to different areas and clicking on the sparkles that give $5 more at a time. While gifts range from $20 at the cheapest to $200 for the expensive. So, you end up spending most of the time going the casino and losing your money and running back home to mom to beg for $10. If you somehow manage to obtain $100, you can put it in the bank to earn a small interest.
4. The girls that you are supposed to date and go after have next to no personality. Seriously, they just repeat standard lines such as "I like reading about archeology" and the sort. No voice acting. No real dialog. The girls are just cookie cutter stereotypical "smart librarian" and "stuck up rich girl." You do not get to pick which response you give them. You literally stand in silence and give them gifts and clicking on talk gives you lines such "Maybe i will go read about greek history later" No background to any of them.
5. There is no tutorial and you are just thrown into some guy's life and you are expected to know from day one what his daily routines are. No real backstory, you are just thrown in and have to discover along the way. The only real help is an instructions page on the main menu.

6. There is no settings menu, you are forced to be in full screen and can't change the resolution.

I have honestly seen better flash game dating sims on Newgrounds. This still needs A LOT more work to ask for any type of price tag on this.. Glitchy, simplistic, tedious, and unrewarding. I purchased this at a fraction of its current still-bargain-bin-ish price and I still can't recommend it. Frankly, I can't tell if the game is fundamentally unfinished, or simply poorly implemented.. I played the game for a hour and it's rage inducing, Money's hard to get, rep is a \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 to get, overall an unfair game that has no fun factor. Let me start by saying i supported the game on Greenlight and i have to admit that the final product is disappointing.Aside from the nonexistent gameplay and boring characters the game suffers from multitude of issues like sounds,crashing and bugged mini games.

One of the few games i requested a refund avoid it and don't let the pretty shining graphics fool you.. My rating 9/10

Advantages:

- + four women who really are different in character and behavior
- + the need to choose one of them
- + the message of the game - the bride depends on us to remember it , we know it
- + to complete in one evening :-)

Disadvantages:

- English only

(Po Polsku)

Moja ocena 9/10

Zalety:

- + cztery kobiety kt\u00f3re naprawd\u0119 r\u00f3\u017cni\u0105 si\u0119 charakterem i zachowaniem
- + konieczno\u015b\u0107 wyboru jednej spo\u015br\u00f3d nich
- + przes\u0142anie gry - narzeczonej zale\u017cy aby\u015bmj j\u0105 pami\u0119tali, aby\u015bmj j\u0105 poznali
- + do uko\u0144czenia w jeden wiecz\u00f3r :-)

Wady:

- tylko angielska wersja j\u0119zykowa

This game is a waste of money.

I'm not even kidding, there's absolutely NOTHING to do.

You can play slots (don't play the slots) which are absolutely useless because of this stupid 10% rule where each game takes 10% of the money you currently have ($1 if you have $10, $10 if you have $100) but the rewards are always the same being $10, $25, $50. THEREFORE you don't actually make any money from the slots AND you certainly won't be able to buy a gift. The most entertaining part of this game is doing your job, and you can only work on Tuesdays ???!?!?!?!? Why can't I just choose when I want to work?

When I first opened the map, I was surprised with all the options of places that I could go to. Before looking at all these places, I was expecting them to have stat-raising benefits like a gym, library (that I could actually boost a stat in not do nothing), workplaces, etc. Instead, there's a bunch of houses which you can't go until later in the game, lockers which you have no damn clue how to open, a place where you can play the same puzzle over and over to raise your reputation, and a casino in which you can just lose all your money. I was hoping the bar would save all the boring locations they had on the map as maybe I could conversate or fight people there, BUT NO. the Devs seem to have put the bar there to spit in your face, as you can't even enter it.

I'm surprised by the dev's decision to not have any stats or REAL way to make money. Would like my money back, gonna try to refund it. There's absolutely nothing to do. It seems like you're expected to go to work, buy a girl a present, and then manually make your character sleep every subsequent day until you can work again and hope you have enough money to buy a gift, if not, sleep until the next week. What a fantastic gaming experience. The game is honestly so deprived of anything to do, I tried breaking into a safe after work so that I could skip a whole week by being in jail, but that didn't work.

Don't buy this game. You'll just end up seriously disappointed. The worst of the worst free dating sim type games are better than this by miles. Simplicity is key in games like this, but the devs seemed to try too hard to spice it up with their casino garbage, but that is pointless because you just lose money. Oh yeah, and that panty minigame is broken, it's the most boring and bugged version of Pong I've ever played, which I don't really understand how you can mess up. The ball constantly bounces incorrectly off the wall and it doesn't matter where it hits your pong platform, it always seems to move in a randomly decided path. Being able to work whenever the hell I wanted and some stat requirements/boosting locations would make this game playable, but there's absolutely nothing to do with the way it currently is.

Score: 2/10 It could be a decent game if the Dev made better decisions or basically had anything other dating sims have, but the gameplay is absolutely nonexistent. Poor design choices. There's nothing to do but sleep until you can work or play the crappy pong game.. game is very easy if you can do slide puzzles, you will get all the rep you need by doing the Goddess puzzles. Was ok as this type of dating sim goes. Although the tag says nudity, which there is none of. That might be a user tag I guess.. I mostly got this game for its graphic style and just for the curiosity of such a game. It's pretty simplistic and sadly, everything comes down to money (reputation is not a problem).. which is damn hard to come by..killing the fun completely.. then I figured out how to easily cheat my amount of money and suddenly everything was too easy, then, as said, everything comes down to money. Well, the other really factor is "knowledge", it comes to part of the game where you have to remember stuff the girls told you.

It was fun, somehow, I only kept playing out of curiosity and because I really like the drawing style and music, but if I hadn't been for the money cheat, I would have stopped playing.. This was extremely repetitive and unrewarding. I'm usually not one to downvote games just to give them the benefit of the doubt, but this was honestly not good. You earn money to buy all the gifts (extremely boring), buy and gift these presents....and talk a bit to them (not a lot at all). I did finish it, but I have to say it was not worth my time, sadly.. This game is a joke as pay to play. I am still playing it but it is sad.. NEW REVIEW:

With the addition of the "panty panix" casino game (which plays like some old Atari and arcade games from WAAAY back...), this game has been elevated to a (barely) passing grade. With a non-chance related way to gain rep and cash daily (whose cost doesn't make you hide most of your money in the bank), this game is now playable.

This is still a semi-tedious game, however... (not as much of a grind-fest as Intergalactic Bubbles, though... T_T)

Sadly, there are still no achievements, although there ARE Trading Cards for those SHINY SHINY BADGES!!! SQUEEE!!!

Some tips tho:

Get the Eye from the fortune-teller girl ASAP, and look everywhere, both day and night.

Talk to the girls on the phone and write down their responses at her beginning, and after each gift!

Write down anything she says about her life, stats, likes or dislikes (you WILL be quizzed later, at the end-game, on whichever girl you choose).

OLD REVIEW:

Ok, this had lots of potential, and the premise is awesome... but not many people will find it fun. Most of it is just gambling at the casino (luck is best, don't hit the skill button or you'll get more awkward reloads) and shoving most of your money in the bank. No real strategy, no consequences of giving the wrong gift to a girl... about the only saving grace to this game imo is the goddess board game. I'm a sucker for a sliding puzzle, and will probably just replay the game for the sliding puzzle minigame tbh. Would have been better if you could get money easier instead of casino every day and a 1-day per week job. Maybe more minigames.. As an achievement hunter I don't feel much interest in a game without achievement but this game was an exception and I finished it. I don't know why this game has many negative ratings but my rating is obviously positive. Although the story progresses through a semi-fantasy method about how to impress girls by a guy, yet the basic is perfectly right that get hassle free money and give them gifts yes, money is the only thing that impresses the girls no matter how much ridiculous it sounds but that's the ultimate fact deep in a woman's mind... whatever the reason is "money is sweeter than honey" for them. :XD

And yes this is an easy game just for very light entertainment.. maybe that's another reason why cyber-hardship lovers [who lacks hardship in their real life and so searches in games] rated this game not so positive.

The only cons I found there should a button to exit [instead of Alt+F4] and reload game at any point. Thanks to developer.. Played for a little over an hour, so far the game seems awesome, I like the fact you can basically choose how to play, nothing is really set in stone for you, the humor is funny in places too which is always a good thing, I was expecting this game to be a simple VN but actually it's more involved than that and that's something I quite like. So far it's all good.
